Safety First Driving School, Inc. Driving School Checklist

Choosing a driving school is an important choice. You will be trusting someone with your personal safety. You only make this decision once. You want your experience to be pleasant, educational, and professional. For this reason we are providing you a checklist of questions to ask when trying to find the school that best fits your needs.

SCHOOL NAME	Safety 1st 800-237-1095		Insert School		Insert School		Insert School
Questions to ask?	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	No	Yes	N o
Has the school been in business more than 10 years?
Does the school provide written test services?
Does the school hold a license to provide on-site vision and knowledge exams?
Does the school have an office building?
Is the school located in a personal residence?
Does the school have an office staff to assist you during business hours?
Does the school use new model cars?
Does the school have a uniform fleet of cars?
Do the cars have a dual gas pedal?
Do the in Instructors complete at least 30 hours of crash avoidance?
Do the instructors recertify each year?
Does the driving school provide references?
Totals								